

We here at Flagler Bank understand the concern for your personal information due to the Equifax breach.

As of 09/07/17, Equifax has stated that there is “No Evidence of Unauthorized Access to Core Consumer or Commercial Credit Reporting Databases”. Regardless, it may be in your best interest to understand or review the information Equifax has been issuing in response.

We are sure you have questions. For answers, go to www.equifaxsecurity2017.com or call 1-866-447-7559. The call center is open every day (including weekends) from 7:00 a.m. – 1:00 a.m. Eastern time.

In addition to the Equifax Potential Impact website, Equifax will send direct mail notices to consumers whose credit card numbers or dispute documents with personal identifying information were impacted.

The Federal Trade Commission has provided information on the breach. To see recommended courses of actions, please click here.

If you would like to place a security freeze on your Equifax credit information, please visit www.freeze.equifax.com/Freeze and follow the instructions provided.

This is being provided for informational purposes only. Flagler Bank is not making recommendations of action or inaction, it is important for you to consider what may be the best option for you.

Clicking on any of the above links will take you away from the Flagler Bank website. Flagler Bank has no control over such sites and resources and is not responsible for the availability of such external sites or resources, and does not endorse and is not responsible or liable for any content, advertising, products, or other materials on or available from such sites or resources.

